

UCatOKState Women's Minister

Are you passionate about connecting the next generation to a growing faith in Christ?

The Church of Christ University Center Campus Ministry (UCatOKState), with the Stillwater Church of Christ, is seeking a Christian woman with gifts in outreach and discipleship to serve as the Women's Minister on our college ministry team! You'll play a vital role in reaching out to college students, mentoring young women, and working with the Senior Campus Minister to foster a vibrant Christian community that shapes and forms students into the likeness of Christ, imitating his character and joining his mission in the world.

Responsibilities:

- Student Mentorship: Act as a source of counsel for students, identify and empower student leaders, and mentor female students.
- Outreach & Engagement: Organize events and activities to connect with students, build relationships, and create a sense of belonging among students.
- Small Group Ministry: Lead and oversee women's small groups, providing discipleship and fostering spiritual growth.
- Ministry Collaboration: Work alongside the Senior Campus Minister, interns, and student leaders to plan and execute UC events, retreats, and conferences.
- Campus Ministry Integration: Facilitate connections between students and the Stillwater Church of Christ, encouraging intergenerational engagement.
- Alumni Relations & Social Media: Assist with alumni relations, fundraising, and social media management.

Qualifications:

- Imitates the character and way of Jesus.
- Bachelor's degree in any field.
- 2-3 years of experience interning or apprenticing in campus ministry is preferred.
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and leadership skills.
- Passion for participating in the mission of God, particularly with young adults.
- Ability to organize, plan, and execute events effectively.
- A growing relationship with Christ and good standing with Churches of Christ.

If you are interested in serving in campus ministry or have a passion for ministering to young adults, we encourage you to apply!
